

I support retaining the morse code of five words per minute for the technician+,general and extra class license. I believe dropping the requirement may turn amateur radio into the uncontrolled citizens band.That would be a travesty. Morse code is still viable and a means of communications that should be protected.